

This Easter coming to Hellin is compulsory!

You can't lose the opportunity of seeing one of the most important drum-playing events in Spain.

Easter week is one of the most important celebrations in our town, because we remember the passion and death of Jesus Christ. Streets become the stage for religious processions which are accompanied by people on their routes through the streets.

Furthermore, the "Tamborada" of Hellin is one of the most well-known celebrations in the province of Albacete, with more than 20,000 drummers wearing black tunics with a red neckerchief. The first time that the drum is played is on the night of the Friday before Palm Sunday.

Apart from that, there are many typical products that you should taste if you come to Hellin this Easter, for instance:

Minibreads, which are delicious, are made with bread, eggs and caramel.

Pasties (whose recipe is the most popular in our town) are made with tomatoes, onions, peppers and hot oil.

“Mojete” whose recipe is composed by chopped tomatoes, onions, tuna and olives.

Candies are very important in our town, penitents give them to children in the processions, we have two factories here.

Finally, if you need some information in order to book a hotel you can contact the Tourism Information Centre which is in Rabal Street.
